About Today’s “White Gift” Service

In 1904, Minister W.B. Winter’s wife, Anna M. Winters, came across an old legend about “The King’s Birthday,” which told of a celebration where white-wrapped gifts were brought before the king to show loyalty and love–everyone used the same white paper for wrapping so that both humble and extravagant gifts would be received with equal edification. This set her thinking – since Christmas was the observance of Jesus’ birthday, why couldn’t a similar celebration be done with gifts to the church in honor of the Christ Child? This was the basis of our White Gift Service, the first of which was held right here at Painesville United Methodist Church and over the many years since then it has been adopted by hundreds of churches around the world!

The original proposal for this service was presented to the Official Board of the church and then to Sunday School teachers and officers; the idea was enthusiastically endorsed by both groups. The initial plan noted that people are blessed individually with different gifts, and so the church body could offer not only gifts of Substance (tangible items) but also gifts of Service (volunteerism) and Self (commitment to prayer, worship, study, fellowship, and the life of the church). The Sunday School students were asked to make a definite pledge of any of these contributions, sign it, and place it in the white envelope as their gift. During that first “White Gift” service, over $300 was contributed to help the church engage in its mission of sharing Jesus Christ with others and serving those in need!

Each subsequent year brought new symbolism to the service. In the sanctuary a platform was usually draped in white with a green tree on each side, as the original legend said the king had done. At the proper time, white curtains were parted to reveal a large white cross. Then, depicting the nativity story in song and pageantry, shepherds and then three wise men came following the star to present their gifts while the hymn “We Three Kings” was sung. After the wise men arrived, those in the church wishing to make a gift brought their pledge card to the altar. Over the years this portrayal has been adapted based on changing needs throughout the life of the church, but has remained true to the original intent – to invite the congregation to commit themselves in self, service, and substance in honor of the birth of our Savior!

In 1944, PUMC organist Ruth Zearfoss Herman introduced “The March of the Wise Men” to the procession during this service. The song has been played throughout the years by succeeding organists for each White Gift service, and depicts the story of the Wise Men as they journey to Bethlehem. The piece starts out with just organ pedal work, which represents the plodding of the camels carrying the Wise Men. Throughout the piece you can hear the Zimbelsterns on the organ, which represent the star over Bethlehem continuing throughout the entire piece. All of this gradually gets louder as the Wise Men approach Bethlehem. As the heralding sounds of the trumpets on the organ join in, the Wise Men have arrived, and at the very end you will hear only the star.

While the White Gift service has changed forms throughout the years, and took a few years’ hiatus during the pandemic, we were pleased to bring back this historic annual tradition in 2023. As you reflect on your own Christian journey, we invite you to consider ways in which you can be a part of the life of the Painesville United Methodist Church through self, service, and substance, dedicated to Christ.
